

Rise afnnet fellows present their work at the Mount Kenya University Annual Research and Innovation Conference

The theme of the conference was

TOWARDS ACHIEVING A KNOWLEDGE ECONOMY THROUGH RESEARCH AND INNOVATIONS

Venue: Safari Park Hotel, Nairobi.

Date: August 28 – 30, 2013

Clare Njoki Antihyperglycemic activity of Zanthoxylum chalybeum stem bark extract	Dr Ronald Okindo Determination of efficacy &amp; safety of a medicinal plant Vernonia hymenolepis	Dr Zachary Rukenya Phytochemical Screening, Antimicrobial Activity and Toxicity of Aloe turkanensis	Dr James Kuria Wound healing activity and safety of aspilia pluriseta-based ointments: validation of ethnomedical use